Kathy McCartney is a supportive, patient teacher who makes learning how to paint fun. We will create whatever your child or teen desires. We will start with a landscape and move on to other subjects as the student progresses in skill.

You name it, we'll paint it! Kathy teaches many subjects including animals, people, and more.

Please visit the student gallery on-line to see Ms. McCartney's students' works:

Make-up classes provided once a month for missed class.

Please email or call if interested in classes or if you have questions or comments. Private is $45 an hour and semi-private two students classes are $25 an hour per person. You are welcome to form your own group class with 3 or more students at $20 an hour per person and schedule a time that fits your schedule.
